

Thomas Thune Andersen

Current Positions

Thomas Thune Andersen is Chairman of Lloyd's Register Group UK and is Chairman of Ørsted AS, ranked as the most sustainable company in the world in 2020. He is a Non-Executive Director of BW Offshore Limited and IMI plc and Vice-Chairman of VKR Holdings A/S.

Background Information

Thomas Thune Andersen joined AP Moller-Maersk A/S in 1977 and developed an international career with a wide-ranging global experience. He has held numerous senior positions throughout the Group including President and CEO of Maersk Inc, based in New Jersey USA, Managing Director for Maersk Company Ltd, based in UK and latterly as Partner and Member of the Executive Board, and Chief Executive Officer, Maersk Oil.

During his more than 30 years tenure with APM- Maersk he has worked globally with business sectors like Container-Shipping, Logistics, Port Operation and Development, Ship owning and Operation, Oil field Services including Drilling Rigs and traditional upstream E&P.

His experience both through his role as Chairman, Board member, consultant and not least through his long and widespread career in the AP Moeller- Maersk Group, has granted him an extensive global insight, experience from different societal and business cultures as well an extensive international network.

Mr Thune Andersen was head of the process when Lloyd's Register Foundation, one of the largest UK charities with focus on scientific and technical research as well as support to scientific education, was established in 2013.

Mr Thune Andersen was previously Non-Executive Director of SSE plc, Scotland (2009-2014) and Chairman of DeepOcean Group Holding AS, the Netherlands (2011-2016), and he was Non-Executive Director of Petrofac Limited from 2010 and Senior Independent Director from 2014-2017.

Other Notable Interests

Mr Thomas Thune Andersen has been appointed a Freeman of The City of London and was awarded the Order of Dannebrog In 2018.

Thomas Thune Andersen is based in London and Copenhagen.