

Daniel Bernard

Current Positions

Daniel Bernard is currently Vice Chairman of CapGemini SE, Permanent Representative on the Board of Peugeot SA, President of Provestis, his own investment company, and a Senior Advisor to Towerbrook Capital Partners LLC. He is also the Honorary President of the HEC Business School Foundation in Paris and a member of the Board of HEC.

Background Information

Daniel Bernard started his career in the retail distribution sector with Metro International AG in Germany. Successively he became the General Manager of France, then Executive Vice-President, responsible for commercial activities and Chief Operating Officer, International.

He joined Carrefour SA in 1992 as CEO and was appointed Chairman and CEO in 1998, positions held until 2005. Under his tenure, Carrefour became the second biggest retailer in the world after Walmart Inc.

In 2006 he became Vice-Chairman of Kingfisher plc and Chairman in 2009 until he stepped down in March 2017.

Mr Bernard was an independent Non-Executive Director on the Board of Saint-Gobain SpA for six years until 2006, and of Alcatel Lucent SA until May 2014.

From 2010 to 2015 Mr Bernard was Chairman of the Majid Al Futtaim Retail Group and he was also President of the HEC Foundation, the leading French business school, where he is now Honorary President.

Other Notable Interests

Mr Daniel Bernard received the Manager of the Year Award in France in 1995 and subsequently several foreign Governmental awards.

He is a Chevalier de la Légion d'Honneur and Officier du Mérite National.

Daniel Bernard is based in Paris.