

Harald Norvik

Current Positions

Harald Norvik is an Independent Consultant who is Lead Director of the Board of ConocoPhillips Company and the Chairman of the Board of Kraft Bank, Imatis and Energynest. He is also a Member of the Board of Umoe Group AS, Arundo and Rock Energy and he currently serves as Chairman of the Nominations Committee of Petroleum Geo Services (PGS) and Veidekke ASA. He is Adviser on Corporate Governance to NBIM, the Sovereign Wealth Fund of Norway.

Background Information

After receiving his Master of Science Degree in Business from the Norwegian School of Economics and Business Administration, Harald Norvik worked at the Institute of Technology before serving as Personal Secretary to the Prime Minister of Norway (1976-1979) and also as State Secretary at the Ministry of Petroleum and Energy (1979-1981).

From 1981 to 1988 he was CFO at Aker Group, a leading global oil services company, and from 1986 to 1988 he was CEO of Astrup Høyer A/S and Member of the Executive Board of the Aker Group.

Mr Norvik was appointed CEO and President of Norwegian oil company Statoil AB in 1988 and he left the company in 1999.

Previously Harald Norvik served as Chairman of Scandinavian Airline Systems (SAS) AB, Telenor ASA, Oslo Stock Exchange ASA and TV2 AS (Commercial TV Company), and Deputy Chairman of PGS ASA (Petroleum Geo Services).

Mr Norvik has been Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Den Norske Bank ASA, and Chairman of the Board of Deep Ocean Group Holding BV and also a Board Member of Orkla ASA and AGR Group ASA.

Other Notable Interests

Mr Harald Norvik is the Chairman of the Board of NRC (Global refugee organisation).

Harald Norvik is based in Oslo.