

Dr Jeroen van der Veer

Current Positions

Dr Jeroen van der Veer is Chairman of Koninklijke Philips NV and Boskalis Westminster Group. He is a member of the Supervisory Board of Equinor ASA (previously Statoil ASA).

Background Information

Mr van der Veer was previously CEO of Royal Dutch Shell plc and Chairman of ING Groep NV.

Dr Jeroen van der Veer has spent the main part of his career with Shell, commencing in 1971 and becoming Managing Director of Shell Nederland BV in 1992 and then President/CEO of Shell Chemicals Co in 1995.

In July 1997 he was appointed Group MD for Royal Dutch Shell Group and subsequently became CEO of Royal Dutch Shell NV/plc in 2004, a position he held until 2009.

During 2002-2009 he was also a Non-Executive Director on the Board of Unilever plc and then the Senior Independent and Vice Chairman until 2011.

Dr van der Veer was also a Supervisory Board member of the Dutch Central Bank from 2000 to 2004.

Other Notable Interests

Dr Jeroen van der Veer is Chairman of The Concertgebouw Fund.

He has been a member of the Governing Board of the European Institute of Innovation and Technology since 2012, and since 2013 he has been the Chairman of the Supervisory Council of the Technical University of Delft.

In 2009 Dr van der Veer received the Queen's Award 'Commander in the Order of Orange-Nassau'.

He is an Honorary Citizen of Singapore and holds an Honorary Doctorate from the University of Port Harcourt (Nigeria).

Dr Jeroen van der Veer is based in The Hague.