

Sir Peter Bazalgette

Current Positions

Sir Peter Bazalgette is Chairman of broadcaster, ITV plc and of Lovecrafts (e-commerce). He also sits on the board of UK Research & Innovation.

Background Information

Sir Peter has spent a lifetime in TV production, helping to create the UK's successful independent production sector.

Sir Peter was Chairman of Endemol UK plc and a former Non-Executive Director of the Government Ministry for Culture, Media & Sport as well as the market researcher, YouGov. He chaired the UK Holocaust Memorial Foundation from 2015 – 2018 and was Chair of the Arts Council England from 2013 – 2017.

Before that he was Deputy Chair of the National Film & TV School and a board member of broadcaster, Channel 4.

Other Notable Interests

Sir Peter is a fellow of BAFTA (British Academy of Film and Television Arts) and was knighted for services to broadcasting in 2012.

He is also currently Chair of the Baillie Gifford Non-Fiction Book Prize and is himself a published writer.

He is a frequent contributor to publications such as the FT, The Times and The Guardian about the business and matters of public policy.

Sir Peter Bazalgette is based in London.